Washington, DC 20002; Neil G. Baron, Law Office of Neil G. Baron, 914 FM 517 W, Suite 242, Dickinson, Texas 77539; Armand G. Derfner, Derfner, Altman & Wilborn, LLC, P.O. Box 600, Charleston, S.C. 29402.

Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, you are directed to answer the following interrogatory fully, in writing and under oath, based on all information reasonably available to you or your attorney at the time your response is made. Please serve your responses and any objections on the undersigned attorneys within thirty (30) days of service of this interrogatory. This interrogatory is continuing in nature as provided by Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS

The following terms have the following meanings, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. Party or Parties. The term “plaintiff” or “defendant” as well as a party’s full or abbreviated name or a pronoun referring to a party, means the party and, when applicable, his agents, representatives, officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates. This definition is not intended to impose a discovery obligation on any person who is not a party to the litigation.

2. Document. The term “document” means information that is fixed in a tangible medium, such as paper, or electronically stored information. It includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, films, charts, photographs, notices, memoranda, diaries, minutes, correspondence, books, journals, ledgers, reports, worksheets, notes, printed e-mails, letters, abstracts, audits, charts, checks, diagrams, drafts, instructions, lists, logs, resumes, and summaries.

a. Electronically Stored Information. The term “electronically stored information” means electronic information that is stored in a medium from which it can be retrieved and examined. It includes, but is not limited to, all electronic files that can be retrieved from electronic storage.

1) “Electronic file” includes, but is not limited to, the following: electronic documents; e-mail messages and files; deleted files; temporary files; and metadata.

2) “Electronic information system” refers to a computer system or network that contains electronic files and electronic storage.

3) “Electronic storage” refers to electronic files contained on magnetic, optical, or other storage media, such as hard drives, flash drives, DVDs, CDs, tapes, cartridges, floppy diskettes, smart cards, integrated-circuit cards (e.g., SIM cards).

3. Tangible thing. The term “tangible thing” means a physical object that is not a document.

4. SB 14. The term “SB 14” refers to Texas Senate Bill 14, 82d Leg., R.S., ch 123, § 3, 2011 Tex. Gen. Laws 619, including all companion or predecessor bills filed during previous sessions, whether regular or special, of the Texas Legislature, and all alternative bills or proposals, whether filed or not, relating to the use of photographic identification for voting in the state of Texas. However, where SB14 is quoted from an allegation in the Federal Complaint, the term “SB 14” has the meaning ascribed to it in the Federal Complaint.

5. And & or. The connectives “and” and “or” should be construed either conjunctively or disjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

6. Person. The term “person” means any natural person, a business, a legal or governmental entity, or an association.

7. You & your. The terms “you” and “your” means Dallas County, and its agents, representatives, attorneys, experts, and other persons acting or purporting to act on behalf of it.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Please identify and describe in detail all facts that support your claim that SB 14, as enacted by the State of Texas' 82nd Legislature, was enacted with a discriminatory purpose and intent. This interrogatory includes a request to identify any documents or tangible things you intend to rely on at trial which have not been, or will not be, produced in response to any Request for Production propounded on you or any other party by Defendants.
